

Live Trading with a Professional Mentor

Once you feel comfortable with the eCourse material and general concepts, it's now time for the real learning to begin. Paper Trading is the time that you really start to figure out the nuts and bolts of trading.

Included in the cost of your life membership is an initial 2 months free in the On-line Live Trading Rooms. You can access the rooms when ever you choose and start your paper trading. Now is your time to concentrate on the signal strategies used and answer any of those many questions you will have. You can also choose to work on more advanced trading tactics like scalping, contrarian signals and use of trailing stops.

Simulated trading is almost identical to the real thing, giving you real fills in real time in the real market with real profit reports. Since no actual money is at risk, you are free to hone your skills and have fun as you gain total mastery and unshakable confidence in the TIMES method. All your previous instruction comes together here as you conquer signal after signal. Once you achieve 15 out of 20 profitable days of successful trading in simulation, you are ready to graduate to the live market trading real capital.

When you start paper trading it's the perfect time for you to formulate your own personal trading plan. You need to start thinking about the following questions....

When am I going to trade, what market will I trade (FOREX or Emini's) and for how long each day??

Traders International now provides more choices for our members with access to the Live Trading Rooms Mon-Fri. We also utilise the FREE SMS Trade Alert Service and the Toll Free 1800 number for all of those traders that want to place their trades while busy doing other things!

What am I going to start out trading and what will I progress to?

Traders International recommends starting in the trading room that best suits the time you want to trade. Match the trading room to your preferred trading time and go for it!

What are my personal goals when it comes to Trading?

Everyone's motives are different when it comes to trading. You may be wanting to Retire and create a cashflow or you may have dreams of conquering the world as the world's best trader... Either way it's best to write down you motives so that you can measure your success. Trade the market that best suits you and simply take advantage of the excellent support and Pro Traders calling your signals live!
