
The Privileges of Traders International Life Membership

Traders International is a FOREX and Emini's Education Specialist and we have been educating new traders around the world for over 12 years. Traders International prides itself in excellence as a Trading Educator and is an industry leading Trading Service Innovator.

The goal of Traders International is to be the industry leading FOREX and Emini Day trading Educator in South East Asia. We seek to provide a multi award winning education package as well as a Live Trading Room service that is second to none.

Our intent is that our clients become independent FOREX and Emini Traders through excellent mentoring and support from their first time in the Live Trading Rooms. The Live Trading Rooms enable our team of professional traders to educate and mentor in the live market, enabling new traders the chance to learn live from the Pro's. If you are looking for a state-of-the-art trading education, where the guess work is taken out of your trading, then Traders International is for you.

The Foundation of our Traders International Membership includes:

- Lifetime membership to the Traders International Trading Community.

- A dynamic and interactive Home Study E-Learning Course with 40+ modules. The course covers both FOREX and Emini trading in detail and serves as the foundation for your introduction to Day Trading with Traders International.

- Constant Research and Development. The Australian and US R and D Teams are constantly testing and refining to the trading strategies used in all markets to ensure that our members have the best trading strategies and signals.

- 2 months free access to all Traders International Trading Rooms so you can decide for yourself what you want to trade and when.

- SUPPORT, SUPPORT, SUPPORT!!! Daily support sessions provide the ideal opportunity for Q&A's sessions. Have access to a Pro Trader for over 20 hours per day, Mon-Fri. Not to forget our fantastic customer support team in the Australian office that are always ready to answer your emails, phone calls and live chat queries.

- Extended FREE Access - The extended access to all the educational trading rooms is aimed at helping new members to complete the necessary processes and start trading LIVE with real money sooner. With day and night access to the Trading Rooms our members increase their options and choices of what they want to trade and can live the lifestyle choices they want.

- The FOREX Trading Room is open for 14 hours per day, 4 days per week and specialises in the Asian and London market sectors. The team of professional traders will have up to 9 currency pairs under analysis simultaneously, so that the best trades are selected for you in the best timeframes imaginable. You can choose to use a FREE SMS Trade Alert Service and place all of your trades using a 1800 Toll Free Number. This is the ultimate lifestyle tool as it allows you to trade while at work, at play, or from anywhere that you choose!

- The Emini Futures Trading Room continues to establish a solid performance foundation as it brings Wall Street to your computer. Listen and watch a Pro Traders Charts during the live European and live US Cash Market hours. This room concentrates on simple and advanced techniques alike and is a fabulous trading education tool.
